JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, in speaking of large fortunes, said: "I am not prepared to discuss the ethics of large fortunes, but this much I can tell you: Great wealth is a great burden, a great responsibility. It invariably proves to be one of two things—either a great blessing or a great curse. We are only stewards. But every man has to give an accounting of his stewardship, continued Mr. Rockefeller, seriously, and those who possess great wealth should have to show that they are competent to use it properly—should pass an examination and be judged, perhaps by what they do with their money."

JAMES G. BLANE wrote his name high on the pages of his country's history as a statesman and a lawmaker. His son, who bears his name, seems to be seeking fame in another line of endeavor, that of marriage and divorce. He has just been legally separated from his second wife on the grounds of desertion and non-support. She is a daughter of Rear Admiral Hickborn, and a very lovely woman, far too good for the degenerate son of a noble sire.

THERE are now 103 counties wholly under the local option law in Texas and 49 others are partially so, making a total of 152 out of 230. These counties contain about one-third of the population of the State and about one-half of the domain. Ninety-six of Kentucky's 119 counties are dry and others are falling over each other to get in line. The time may soon come when we can get red liquor only in speak eases and blind tigers.

THE almost unending march of the pension procession is shown in the fact that until recently one widow pensioner of the Revolutionary war survived. There are still three daughters of revolutionary soldiers on the rolls. Of the war of 1812 no soldier survives, but there are 660 widows of that war on the rolls. Of the Indian wars there are 2,173 survivors and 3,367 widows; of the Mexican war, 3,984 survivors and 7,488 widows.

A MAN out west has sued his wife for a divorce on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment, because she threw a hot beefsteak at him. The dispatch does not state whether it was because the steak was hot that objection is raised, but it strikes us that a fellow should be glad who had a wife able to use beef steaks for missiles at the present ruinous prices of the article.

ELEGANT GIFT.—Mr. S. H. Shanks bought of Mr. W. L. McCarty his farm of 230 acres, one mile from town, for $20,750. He bought the place for his daughter, Mrs. C. E. Tate, and made her a Christmas present of it. We are glad to state that Mr. McCarty will not leave the county.

CORNS CURED.—Corn Exit will positively remove corns in four days. The treatment is simple and pleasant and we absolutely guarantee to refund the money to each and every customer whose corns are not promptly removed with entire satisfaction. A bottle of this great preparation only costs 15 cents and nothing if a perfect cure is not speedily effected. G. L. Penny, druggist, Stanford, Ky.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is no other medicine manufactured that has received so much praise and so many expressions of gratitude as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effective, and prompt relief follows its use. Grateful parents everywhere do not hesitate to testify to its merits for the benefit of others. It is a certain cure for croup and will prevent the attack if given at the first appearance of the disease. It is especially adapted to children as it is pleasant to take and contains nothing injurious. Mr. E. A. Humphreys, a well known resident and clerk in the store of Mr. E. Lock, of Alice, Cape Colony, South Africa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to ward off croup and colds in my family. I found it to be very satisfactory and it gives me pleasure to recommend it." For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

What promises to be the last hearing in the suit brought by the State of Missouri to oust the oil companies is to be held in St. Louis on January 7.

FRANK PETREY KILLED.—Frank Petrey, son of Adam Petrey, of Ottenheim, was killed in what the railroad men call a "sideswipe" at Habersham, Tenn., a few nights ago. The remains were brought to the home and interred. He was braving and had been in the employ of the L. & N. for nearly two years. He leaves a widow, who is a daughter of Mr. Uriah Albright. They had been married less than a year.

GRINSTEAD.—On Saturday last at 3 A. M., Mr. John T. Grinstead, only son of Prof. and Mrs. W. C. Grinstead, of Danville, died of pneumonia. He was sick only four days and was never fully conscious from the time he was stricken. He was universally liked and none knew him but to call him friend. He was a favorite on the athletic field and numbers a wide circle of friends in all walks of life. His genial disposition made "T" Grinstead a friend to all who knew him. He leaves a mother and father and sister, Mrs. J. W. Ireland, of this place, to mourn his loss, besides his myriad of acquaintances. The departure of this life has left a void which neither empty words nor earthly glory can fill, for storied urn or animated dust can not bring back to its mansion the fleeting breath or silent dust. No voice can soothe the dull, cold ear of death. May He Who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb temper this affliction to the bruised hearts of the devoted parents and loving sister, is the sincere petition of all who know them. The funeral services were conducted last Sunday afternoon at the residence of the parents by Eld. Jos. Ballou, of this place, and Dr. W. L. Dorgan, of Danville. A FRIEND.

FIRE.—The large store of The Reynolds Co., at Waynesburg, M. G. and Theodore Reynolds, proprietors, burned at midnight on the 21st, causing a loss of fully $6,000. It is not known how the fire originated but it is believed that the building caught from the stove or flue. The Reynolds Co. had fully $4,000's worth of goods and their loss was entire. They carried $2,000 insurance. The Maccabees owned the building, which cost about $1,500. They had a policy of $1,000. The postoffice was kept in the store and the mail, stamps, books, etc., were all destroyed. At present Postmaster Taylor Wesley is keeping the office at his home. The Reynolds are not decided what move they will make.
